

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS TO BE AWARDED

they were the only party to be killed. I saw a man kill a Negro, and nothing is said about it only that the officer shot in self-defense or the Negro was a desperado but a colored officer kill a white man.

I met one colored officer killed by a white man he caught robbing a stage coach. The daily papers get away. The man killed, so they say, had never been in trouble, and so on.

The police authorities are inclined to doubt the reason for the race war, and the soldier.

The war things are going there concerning the colored race, is a broader as the South is moving North with all of his tricks of hatred.

NEW NEIGHBORHOOD SEC.

FOR THE URBAN LEAGUE

The Urban League announces the appointment of Miss Mary A. Norman, Neighborhood Secretary, Miss Norman, who has been in the city for some time, has been appointed to the position of Neighborhood Secretary, and has already displayed marked aptitude for her work.

Miss Norman, who came to St. Louis from the State Industrial school for Women at Mount Airy, N. C., where she has been employed for some time, has been appointed to the position of Neighborhood Secretary, and has already displayed marked aptitude for her work.

By reason of considerable experience in the promotion of women's and girls' clubs with the Urban League, and four years' club work in the Y. W. C. A., as well as her own work with the Urban League, and Social Case work with the American Red Cross, Miss Norman brings to the work of the Neighborhood Secretary valuable training and experience which should warrant success in the local league.

The Neighborhood Advisory Committee held Wednesday afternoon, plans were made for the work of the Neighborhood Secretary, and the Urban League expects to announce developments of these plans in the near future.

At the next headquarters the neighborhood clubs will have for their next large social and play room on the second floor devoted to the work of the Urban League, and the Urban League expects to announce developments of these plans in the near future.
